

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE 7

SESSIONS

SECTION 1. This Confederation (any and all churches, home groups, subsidiaries, individuals) shall meet once a year for a time of fellowship, praise, and worship, or as the need may arise from time to time as directed by the Spirit of God, at such time and place as the Confederation shall designate after much prayer and consideration. The location will be broadcast to all members by publishing, either by email, text or stamped mail, at least eight weeks before the date of the meeting. All subsidiaries and members of this organization in good standing are encouraged to attend and participate, gaining strength in God the Father and building up the brethren in the Lord.

SECTION 2. The Executive Committee/Board may call extra sessions, particularly for training of both leadership and laity, by a like notice as led by the Spirit of God. These are important for the growth of the members in the spirit and body of Christ is necessary in order for the perfect man in Christ to be built up as defined by Paul in Ephesians 4:13-16.
